If there is a non-filing co-borrower, creditor(s) may request financial information from the non-filing co-borrower in anticipation of the mediation if the filing debtor intends to use the non-filing co-borrower's income to qualify for modification. Upon receipt of all documents, creditor(s)' counsel shall timely submit the documents to underwriting at least 10 days in advance of the mediation.

8. Identification of Mediation Participants with Settlement Authority. At least 21 days prior to the scheduled mediation, counsel for the creditor(s) must provide a completed Certification of Settlement Authority identifying the creditor(s)' representative(s) who will appear at the mediation to the office of the Chapter 13 Trustee, the mediator, and the debtor(s)' counsel, along with the case number of the action and contact information for all of the parties. The contact information must include the last known mailing address, phone number, and email address for each party. At least one of the creditor(s)' representatives designated in the Certificate of Settlement Authority must attend any mediation session scheduled pursuant to this Order. The creditor(s)' representative(s) may appear telephonically or by video conference as long as they also are available to sign a binding settlement agreement by facsimile, email, or other electronic means, at the time of the mediation. Creditor(s) may amend the Certificate of Settlement Authority to change the designated creditor(s)' representative provided they supply the amended Certificate of Settlement Authority to the office of the Chapter 13 Trustee no later than 5 days prior to the mediation session.

9. Mediation Parties Must Attend Entire Mediation Session. The trustee of a securitized loan or its fully authorized designee with complete and master servicer settlement authority (to settle within the guidelines of any third party, or subject to any third party investor approval) or a specialist from the creditor(s)' mortgage modification department with complete and master servicer authority to settle must attend and continuously participate in the entire mediation session.

10. Video or Telephonic Attendance by Parties. Both counsel for the creditor(s) and the creditor(s)' representative designated in the Certificate of Settlement Authority may participate in the mediation by telephone or video conference. Debtor(s) and the debtor(s)' counsel or special counsel may appear by telephone or video conference. Any party who is not physically present at the mediation must be able to sign a binding settlement agreement by facsimile, email, or other electronic means, at the time of the mediation.

11. Mediator Report. Within 7 days of the conclusion of the mediation, the mediator is directed to file a written report indicating whether any agreement on a mortgage modification was reached. Parties are directed to promptly seek any necessary court approval for the mortgage modification and to formalize the modification in any needed legal documents.

12. Mediation Fee ($385.00). Upon filing this Motion to Mediate, the debtor(s) shall pay to the Chapter 13 Trustee the mediation cost of $385.00 ($350.00 for the mediator and $35.00 trustee fee) for two hours of mediation. The Chapter 13 Trustee is directed to disburse to the mediator this fee promptly upon the earlier of the mediator filing a report concluding the mediation, continuing the mediation, or upon modification of the loan. The mediator is also entitled to the full $350.00 fee, and the Chapter 13 Trustee is authorized to disburse the fee, if either party fails to timely cancel the mediation session or to attend a scheduled mediation session. A cancellation is considered timely if it is received by the mediator and all parties no later than 14 days prior to the scheduled mediation date.

13. Creditor(s)' Counsel Fee. Counsel for the creditor(s) is entitled to receive a reasonable fee for all work involved in connection with the mediation, including requesting and reviewing documents, preparing for the mediation, scheduling the mediation, and attending the mediation, and will clearly delineate such fee in the completed agreement or by amended proof of claim.

14. Debtor(s)' Counsel Fee. Counsel for the debtor(s) is also entitled to receive a reasonable attorney's fee, and shall file a supplemental or Amended Disclosure of Attorney's Fee as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) within 15 days of receipt.

15. Written Roll. Prior to the commencement of any mediation conference, the mediator shall take a written roll listing the presence of the debtor(s), debtor(s)' counsel, if any, creditor(s)' counsel, and creditor(s)' representative with full authority to settle within the guidelines of any third party or subject to any third part investor's final approval. If the mediator determines that a needed party is not present, the mediator shall report the non-appearance of that party on the written roll. If the mediator determines that the creditor(s)' representative present does not have full authority to settle pursuant to the Certificate of Settlement Authority, the mediator shall report that the creditor(s)' representative did not appear on the written roll as a representative with full settlement authority as required by this order.

The written roll and communication of authority of the mediation is not a mediation communication. If a mediation does not occur because a party fails to attend or the creditor(s)' representative lacks settlement authority, the Court may order the non-attending party to physically appear at all future scheduled mediations, tax costs of another mediation to the non-attending party, or impose other sanctions as the Court deems appropriate, including entering an Order Granting the Modification of the Mortgage substantially complying with the HAMP guidelines or awarding attorney's fees and costs to the opposing party.

16. Privileged Communications. All statements made by the parties, attorneys, and other participants at or associated with the mediation, except as provided in paragraph 16 above regarding the written roll, are privileged and not reported, recorded, or placed into evidence, made known to the Court, or construed for any purposes as an admission. No party shall be bound by any statement made or action taken at the mediation conference unless an agreement is reached.

17. Stay Lifted to Allow Mediation. The automatic stay is modified, to the extent necessary, to facilitate the mortgage creditor(s)' loan modification terms pursuant to this order. The parties shall timely submit any agreed loan modifications to the Court for approval.

18. All parties are directed to comply with this order and to engage in the mediation process in good faith. Failure to do so may result in the imposition of damages and sanctions.
